

Preparation for Worship

For the Church is not a human society of people united by their natural affinities, but the Body of Christ, in which all members, however different (and He rejoices in their differences and by no means wishes to iron them out) must share the common life, complementing and helping one another precisely by their differences.

Call to Worship

One: Calling us out from our ordinary lives, our ordinary work, our ordinary gifts,

Many: Jesus says, "Follow me."

One: Calling us to work alongside sisters and brothers throughout the world,

Many: Jesus says, "Follow me."

One: Calling us to join together, proclaiming good news of healing and hope,

Many: Jesus says, "Follow me."

One: Let us worship God!

† Hymn #757

Today We All Are Called To Be Disciples

† Prayer of Confession

Holy God, in Jesus you call us to follow you with our whole lives. we confess that we have not lived fully into that calling. We have missed opportunities to abide in your love and proclaim the good news of the kingdom. We have been distracted by other pursuits. We have not embraced the full community of your disciples, but instead we have often put up walls of division. We have not let our whole hearts be captivated and guided in the way of Jesus. Forgive us, O God, renew us in your calling, and unite us with your body throughout the world. In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.

Assurance of Forgiveness

One: Friends, if God is for us, who can be against us? The only one who has the power to condemn is the same Jesus Christ who lived and died for us. Jesus came not to condemn us but to save us and set us free. In his name, we are forgiven. Hear the good news of the Gospel and be at peace.

Many: Thanks be to God!
