Preparation for Worship

Blessed are those who trust in the LORD,
whose trust is the LORD,
They shall be like a tree planted by water,
sending out its roots by the stream.
It shall not fear when heat comes,
and its leaves shall stay green;
In the year of drought it is not anxious,
and it does not cease to bear fruit.

Call to Worship

Leader: Worship God in holy splendor. God's voice is powerful, thundering across the ages and through our lives, calling us to renewal and repentance.

People: God's voice is loving, whispering comfort to broken hearts and assurance to weary spirits.

Leader: God's voice is eternal, ever-speaking, ever-seeking, calling out to God's own children.

People: We respond in thanks and praise. Let us worship God!

† Hymn #645

Sing Praise to God Who Reigns Above

† Prayer of Confession

Loving God, we confess to you that we often depend too much upon ourselves—our own wisdom, our own abilities, our own labors, and our own strength. And because we are often able to be self-reliant, we sometimes make the mistake of believing that we are self-sufficient: that we need not depend upon our neighbors or upon you. We would rather give than be indebted, rather answer than ask, rather be trusted than trust. Faith, by contrast, demands that we be able to do all of these things: trust your grace, ask for help or forgiveness, owe a debt of gratitude to you and to our neighbors. Lord, grant us forgiveness for our sins, and grant us also humility or courage to depend upon you, that we may lean upon your everlasting arms. In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

† Assurance of Forgiveness

Leader: The mercy of the Lord is from everlasting unto everlasting. As far as the East is from the West, so far has God removed our transgression from us. In the name of Jesus Christ, we are all forgiven.
